

MPH Program: Sample Full-Time Student Schedule

Community Health Research Concentration

The listing below is an ideal schedule for accelerated 1-year MPH students in the Community Health Research concentration. Individual student schedules may vary due to transfer credits, student preference, etc.

Summer:

- PH 302 Intro to Biostats (Core Course) (1.0)
- PH 414 Injury in Public Health (Selective Option) (1.0)
- PH 439 Qualitative Research Methods (Methods Requirement Option) (1.0)
- EB 418 Obesity Epidemiology (Elective) (1.0)

Fall:

- PH 301 Behavior, Health, and Society (Core Course) (1.0)
- PH 310 Topics I (Core Course) (0.0)
- PH 317 Seminar in CHR I (Req'd Concentration Course) (1.0)
- PH 323 Health Equity (Req'd Concentration Course) (1.0)
- PH 421 Interm. Biostats (Methods Requirement Option) (1.0)

Winter:

- PH 304 Intro to Epidemiology (Core Course) (1.0)
- PH 311 Topics II (Core Course) (0.0)
- PH 318 Seminar in CHR II (Req'd Concentration Course) (0.0)
- PH 320 Community Engaged Research (Req'd Concentration Course) (1.0)
- PH 417 Public Health Law (Selective Option) (1.0)
- or
- PH 425 Intro to GIS (Methods Requirement Option) (1.0)
- PH 420 Intro to Health Management (Core Course) (1.0)

Spring:

- PH 303 Environmental Health Sciences (Core Course) (1.0)
- PH 312 Topics III (Core Course) (1.0)
- PH 319 Seminar in CHR III (Req'd Concentration Course) (0.0)
- PH 411 Assessment, Planning, and Evaluation in CH (Req'd Concentration Course) (1.0)
- PH 410 Field Experience (Professional Experience) (0.0)
- PH 560 Culminating Experience (Professional Experience) (1.0)